LINCOLN HIGHWAY OPEN HOUSE

The CCHS is proud to announce the release of long time member Cynthia Ogorek's new book, The Lincoln Highway Around Chicago, her second to be published under the Arcadia Images of America Series. And to celebrate this accomplishment we are having an Open House following our meeting this month. Members should have received invitations in the mail by now. Begun in 1913, the Lincoln Highway was the first road built across the USA coast to coast and became known as the 'Main Street of America.' Being an 'urban

IN MEMORIAM

On a sadder note, we regret to announce the loss of one of our members. Dorothy Pasko passed away May 2 following a short illness. Dorothy was an active member of the CCHS, always willing to help out in whatever way she could at meetings and events. We are missing her and mourn her loss.
